Turned the Tales

J. W. Turpin was arrested Saturday on the charge of burglary, for taking $48 from a fellow at the McDermott rooming house. The complaining witness in the case was W. H. Baker. Turpin vigorously denied the charge on which he was arrested, and said the only money he had taken from Baker was in gambling. He then asked to be permitted to plead guilty to the charge of gambling and was permitted to do so in the court of Justice D. C. Woods, Tuesday. The county attorney then got busy, and held an inquisition which resulted in the arrest of Baker on Tuesday afternoon. He will be tried in this term of the district court. It is said that Baker, who was the complaining witness against Turpin, registered at the rooming house as W. H. Hicks. He further is said to have told people that he was a revenue officer. The general impression is that he is an undesirable citizen. Turpin was fined $50 and costs and given thirty days in jail. Baker could not give bond and is now in the hands of the sheriff.
